Sports

Soft, carbohydrate-rich gingerbread for an energy boost. Excellent for endurance sports such as running, cycling, hiking, football, soccer, golf and many more!

- The blend of simple and complex carbohydrates provides both immediate and sustained energy, ideal for optimal athletic performance.
- Soft gingerbread naturally has a 1.7 to 1.9 of glucose to fructose, but we also offer specific recipes with a 2:1 ratio of glucose to fructose, for optimal energy uptake.
- Its soft texture and compact size make it easy to consume during intense training sessions and competitions – and it doesn't crumble or melt.
- Low in fat and easy to digest, perfect for athletes.
- Conveniently packaged in individual portions of approximately 40g (1 or 2 slices).

Available in different variants:

- With apple pieces, pearl sugar, or dark chocolate for added flavor experience.
- Enriched with B vitamins to provide sufficient energy and aid muscle recovery.
- Enriched with magnesium to replenish the body's salt balance.

This soft gingerbread helps athletes perform at their best time and time again!

Certified

We cater to your market needs by offering a range of products that meet the most specific requirements, without compromising on quality or taste.

- Our products meet the highest quality standards, including IFS Higher Level (International Food Standard), ensuring food safety and product integrity.
- We offer an FDA-approved line for the U.S. market, where each product is carefully inspected to meet strict safety and health regulations.
- For specific lifestyles, we offer a wide range of products that comply with Organic, Vegetarian, plant-based, Halal, or Kosher standards.
- As many natural ingredients as possible, avoiding artificial additives like preservatives. This aligns with our commitment to pure taste and minimal processing.

With this approach, we provide solutions that meet the growing demand for certified and reliable products, allowing you to confidently respond to your customers' needs.

Indulgence

Delicious soft gingerbread – classic or enriched with nuts, fruit, or chocolate perfect for moments of pure indulgence!

- Made according to traditional, carefully preserved family recipe, using age-old methods, resulting in a rich, authentic flavor.
- The combination of rye flour with natural sweeteners like honey or with sugar syrup creates a delicious taste experience, but with few calories and a low-fat composition. Enjoy guilt-free – tasty and responsible, the best of both worlds.
- Classic or packed with extra ingredients – there's something for everyone, making it an ideal addition to your product range.
